Indian Welcome Encounter: virtual information event and get-together for Indian people in the Stuttgart region

You recently arrived in Stuttgart or the region, and you have several questions concerning your start here for instance travel restrictions, residence permit, or integration? You are an Indian expat, professional or student living in the Stuttgart region and you would like to meet others with a similar background? Thus, the Welcome Center Stuttgart and the Indian Honorary Consulat in Stuttgart would like to invite you to a welcome meeting.

Primary, we will give you some important information about the first steps to Stuttgart, in order for studying and working in the Stuttgart region. Furthermore, we will explicate to what extent the Welcome Center Stuttgart and the Indian Honorary Consulat can offer assistance to you. Subsequently, you will have the opportunity to connect and share your experiences with others from India. The event is free of charge and will be offered in English.
